For Advisory War Council.

"The other offices have problems which, under present conditions, are bether so constantly changing nor so pressing. It results that in these other offices permanent officials can be well trusted to look after the regular departmental work, while the Prime Minister is able to use them for the practical purpose of forming an advisory war council without the necessity of choosing with especial care men with particular office. The chief qualification in the other offices is that the holders be men fitted to sit in an advisory war council.

The little figure was clearly outlined in the great window close crowned head of dark hair, white sailor suit with collar of light blue, and a face more like the face of the Crown Princes.

Two or three times the child saluted and every time he did that the coo of endearment went up to him and chuckles from the old men.

The Next War Lord's Family.

The geniality of the crowd communicated itself to the sentrees standing at each side of the entrance of the pulling on in the window above them, but they grinned broadly.

It seemed to be quite a family affair. Then there was a slow movement of the curtains and apparently some words were spoken to the boy, for the turned his head and then decorously descended from the window ledge.

When you spend a dollar, spend it with colors flying, and spend it well!

If a man has only a hundred dollars to invest he is under no compulsion to put it in a gold mine that is full of promise and nothing else.

He can put it in any one of the biggest corporations in existence and have both the assurance and satisfaction of being in distinguished company. Because you wear popular-priced clothes is no reason why you should patronize a shop which caters only to popular-priced needs and has no ideas or ideals beyond that. You can patronize a shop like Saks', which makes clothes from $17.50 to $50, and in that way get the benefit of tailoring and style which is not restricted by a horizon of low prices. No matter how little you spend, spend it in good company, and where you can be assured beyond peradventure that you are getting the

At $17.50, at $20 and at $23 we can show you a range of fabrics and colorings that is complete, a range of models from the regulation to the radical, and tailoring and style such as you cannot find in any other clothes at these prices-and that statement goes without revision. reservation, or the privilege of changing our plea!
